Group & Personal Study Guide

What stood out to you from the Sunday message?

Colossians 1:24-25

- What are some things we believe we MUST do to please God?
- What are some things God promises to us?

Colossians 1:26-27a

- How does God's word affect your life?
- How can we condition ourselves to always go to God's word we need something?

Colossians 1:27b-28

- How are you comforted by knowing that God doesn't leave you alone to figure life out?
- How can we operate more boldly knowing that God's Spirit live in us? What has fear kept us from doing?

Colossians 1:29

- What scriptures come to mind when we think of the power that God has?
- Since that power lives in us, what can we do today to help share that with others?

_____

Challenge: We often only think about the things that God wants from us. We make a list of commands we must obey. How often do we really think about the things God has given us, despite us? Dwell on how truly loving God is this week and think about all that He has given you and decide how you can share that with others.
